I am writing for
Post Office in Santa Fe, Mo.
(Monroe County).

If you ever lived in a small community, you will understand what I am writing about, the post office is the heart of our community, we get the information on death, births, sickness, accident & get from our post office.

When it is too bad in the winter, our Postmaster brings over mail to our house. We don't have any other business in our town.

Our Post Office is only open 4 hours a day. I can't see how that will save you very much. I think you could save money some other way.

As far as I know, we are the only Post Office in Monroe County that is ~~closing~~ closing.

I hope you will let us keep our Post Office open here in Santa Fe, Mo.

Thanks,
